They Shall Not Grow Old: Remembrance 2025

Remembrance is something that the Academy is proud to approach from a whole-school perspective. Just before 11am, the entire academy made their way on to the astroturf area in order to address the central area of the pitch where Mr Turner and our commemorative plinth (designed and constructed by staff member Mr Dale, a former member of the armed services) were based. As has become tradition, Executive Principal, Mr Turner, read a moving extract from For the Fallen by Robert Laurence Binyon to the entire academy followed by Mr Dale and our cohort of student cadet force members, resplendent in their uniforms, presented the Academy's poppy wreath to its place on the plinth. Cadet members stepped back and a simulated canon fire was played to mark the beginning and end of the two-minute silence, something of which is always moving to witness the reverence and respect of which both students and staff observe during this important moment. Following this, cadet force members saluted for the duration that the traditional bugle renditions of The Last Post and The Rouse before turning and marching in step from the astroturf, closing the proceedings. The students were exceptional in their observance of remembrance and once they had all cleared the astroturf, were followed by the plinth and wreath being taken to the Visitor's Reception.
