

Sociology

Please complete one line from the task list below. All students must complete the middle task as part of their line:

Research the suffragette movement and explain which strand of Feminism best suits the movement. Create a poster displaying this	There is a great deal of evidence to suggest that educational experience is influenced greatly by factors such as; gender, class and ethnicity. Research each factor and produce a document for each. You will need to include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Statistical evidence on the educational attainment of each group • Identify and explain at least 2 possible reasons for the different educational experiences. Include research evidence in your answer. E.g. Labelling • Outline how school/government have tried to deal with the issues 	Research 4 different government educational policies from at least 3 different political parties. Create 3/4 posters to represent your findings. For each policy you need to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Outline the policy. • Explain why the policy came about. • Assess the impact of the policy on the educational system. Provide evidence in your answer.
Explain the difference between positivism and interpretivism	Research and create a mind map/poster on the following perspectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Marxism - Functionalism - Feminism - Post-Modernism - Internationalism 	Research the Laud Humphries Tea room trade, summarise the research and its findings
Research the different types of observations used in sociological research	Describe society from a functionalist perspective	Describe the family from a Marxist point of view

Suggested resource list:

AQA A Level Sociology Book One Including AS Level: Book one