

LEARNING JOURNEY STEPS

Religion in Modern Britain

Year 9, Half-Term 6

The principal aim of religious education is to explore what people believe and what difference this makes to how they live, so that pupils can gain the knowledge, understanding and skills needed to handle questions raised by religion and belief, reflecting on their own ideas and ways of living. It also encourages tolerance and understanding of others in our community and allows for an appreciation of diverse beliefs.

Be W.I.S.E.R

Be well

Be inclusive

Be safe

Be engaged

Be ready

I know how to keep myself physically and mentally well.

I understand the importance of treating others with empathy and respect.

I know how to stay safe in relationships; online and in the real world.

I contribute to the wider school life and make the most of opportunities.

I know how to be an active citizen and I am prepared for life after school.

Should Christians be greener than anyone else?

Do Christians Need to Care About the Environment?

Being a Muslim teenager in modern Britain

The Buddha: his teachings and value today

Sikh teachings on equality and service

Being non-religious in Britain today